	26-4-2005 Heard Mr. A.P. Sharma, counsel for the petitioner. The case of the petitioner is that his father Late Vijay Kumar Tiwari was working as Helper in Kisan Rice Mills, Sarangarh, District: Raigarh, the said Rice Mills belong to the State Co-operative Marketing Federation, and the petitioner's father died in harness on 25-1-2000. On 15-2-2002, the petitioner's mother Smt. Gouri Bai applied for compassionate appointment of the petitioner. The Madhya Pradesh Rajya Sahakari Vipanang Sangh Maryadit, Raipur, vide its letter dated 24-2-2000 directed Smt. Gouri bai to send an application in prescribed proforma fulfilling the required information and particulars. In compliance of the same, an application was sent in the prescribed proforma with all requirements, and copies of those documents are Annexures P-4 to P-8. Thereafter, the petitioner made several representations to the respondents, but nothing has been heard from their side. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the circumstances, the respondents be directed to consider the case of the petitioner for compassionate appointment, considering the representations and applications of the petitioner. The request made by learned counsel for the petitioner is just, fair and reasonable.
